

Data for Improvement | Program Recap

Module 1: Performance Measurement

IHQC presented performance measurement basics and how to choose the right measures to inform action. Sites completed a measure collection plan and shared progress on a Learning Lab.

Define Business Requirements

Identify Immediate Issues

Assess Why Issues are Occurring

Remediate Identified Issues

Module 2: Data Quality

Intrepid Ascent shared concepts behind a data quality framework and a Data Quality Worksheet that sites completed and then discussed challenges and learnings on a Learning Lab.

DY12 Data Summit (October 12, Oakland, CA)

- CAPH PRIME entities learned about optimizing use of data for PRIME and discussed reporting tactics and lessons learned in DY12
- Members gave feedback on each others' dashboards

Improving Data Quality for PRIME Workshop (April 20, Oakland, CA)

- Data for Improvement Teams recapped Module 1
- Attendees learned more about Data Quality and the PRIME Data Integrity Policy
- San Mateo shared how they work on data quality with their health plan

Module 3: Analysis of Data

Jerry Lassa educated members on dashboard elements and techniques that improve use of data.

Intrepid Ascent provided an overview of technology tools for visualization.

Module 4: Data Literacy

Healthcare Analytics Overview (1/16/18, 12-1): ThatWave will share overview of key healthcare analytics competencies with actionable case studies.

Register here.
Improving Data Literacy (2/2/18, 12-1): ThatWave will share best practices and tools for improving data literacy. Register here.

